Excursion and BBQ to Xàtiva 11 June 2019

This year, instead of the barbecue at the Ermita, we would like to organize a day trip to Xàtiva near the Valencia and Alicante border with barbecue party as a final tour before the summer break.

Xàtiva is situated along the N340 South West from Valencia and is the birth place of Rodrigo Borgia who later became Pope Alexander VI in 1492.

Departure is by bus (Manolo) on 11 June 2019 at 07:30 hrs from the Plaza Constitución in Peñíscola.

In Xàtiva, a typical Valencian town with almost 30 thousand inhabitants, a tourist train (Trenet) awaits us, which takes us to the castle above the town after following a route along the main attractions. There we have one hour to visit. Then the train picks us up and takes us back to the starting point.

From there we drive to lunch in a so-called "Merendero" (excursion restaurant). The BBQ consists of appetizer and grill plate, including dessert and drinks. Vegetarians can get a special dish.

Then we return back to Peñíscola. (Arrival about 19:00 hrs).

Price For members 35.00 Euro For non-members 40.00 Euro
